

Across the Waters

1 A - cross the wa - ters, shrowd - ed dark and deep,
 2 The net un - fur - ling sinks in - to the sea;
 3 In drown - ing de - luge, threat - en - ing our death,
 4 O blest Cre - a - tor, light of all the Earth,

A breath of liv - ing Word Dis - turbs the sur - face,
 The sai - lors watch in is hope. Then Je - sus calls from A say - ing hand in is thrust. all. The O Spi - rit breathes on We praise you, Lord is of all. lov - ing Sa - vior, ris - ing from its sleep, The gift of life now shore of Ga - li - lee, "Bring in your fish - ing us a of heal - ing new birth, And Re - deemed, we turns to source of our new birth, deemed, we turns to your stirred. A light ex - plodes, cre - a - ting earth's first boat. The call trust re - sounds; it spans the end - less trust. Then O Spi - rit, forms come to faith, and er faith us to call. O Spi - rit, forms come to faith, and er faith us to as morn. In ho - ly light is God's cre - a - tion born.

 years And bids us fol - low, calm - ing deep - est fears.
 sight. In Re - deemed we fol - low, 'til our task in God's light one. In faith we'll fol - low, done.

Text and Tune: Paul Jacobson

Copyright © Paul Jacobson, 2009